

We are Hiring!

Early Childhood Music Teachers

A well-designed teaching role
with real work-life balance

Job Description, Roles & Responsibilities

Picture this: Your teaching day starts at 10 AM and wraps up by 1 PM. You get a real midday break, and on some days, just a couple of focused evening sessions. The rest of your time is yours, for practice, learning, family, or simply having a life outside work.

Now imagine spending those working hours doing deeply meaningful work: making music with young children who are curious, engaged, and genuinely excited to learn. No lunch duty. No bus monitoring. No administrative overload. Just high-quality music teaching in a thoughtfully designed environment.

If you're a music teacher who wants professional respect and work-life balance or a musician ready to step into serious early childhood education, Tāla Education offers a career, not just a timetable.

We're looking for a caring educator who wants to guide children aged 2-7 through musical exploration using Child-centric methods (Orff and Kodály). Creating a play-based environment where learning happens naturally and joyfully.

Job Post: Music Teacher for Early Childhood/Kindergarten (Children 2 to 7 years of age). A passionate teacher eager to teach music in a way that kids love- through play!

What We're Looking For

Musical Skills:

- Grade 5+ Music Theory (ABRSM/Trinity equivalent)
- Piano OR Guitar/Ukulele proficiency, able to accompany songs and sing simultaneously
- Natural English Fluency

Teaching Skills:

- Patience and warmth with children
- Comfortable with play-based learning approaches
- Deep understanding of early childhood development (ages 2-7)
- Openness to unlearn and learn the Tāla's Approach Based on Orff Schulwerk and Kodály methods.

Why Teachers Choose Tāla:

Professional Growth:

- Training to upskill yourself with internationally recognised music pedagogy International and regular Skill-Building Workshops
- Career Advancement into curriculum development and leadership roles

Work-Life Balance:

- Flexible Scheduling + Supportive Team Environment with guidance
- Creative Freedom + All Resources Provided

Your Week at Tāla Education

A Typical Music Teacher Schedule

	MON	TUE	WED	THU	FRI	SAT	SUN
10:00 AM	Preschool A 30 min	Preschool B 40 min	Preschool A 30 min	Preschool B 40 min	Free	Weekend Free	Weekend Free
10:30 AM	Preschool A 40 min	Preschool B 40 min	Preschool A 40 min	Preschool B 40 min	Free	Weekend Free	Weekend Free
11:00 AM	Break 30 min	Preschool B 40 min	Break 30 min	Preschool B 40 min	Preschool C 30 min	Weekend Free	Weekend Free
11:30 AM	Preschool A 30 min	Done for day	Preschool A 30 min	Done for day	Preschool C 30 min	Weekend Free	Weekend Free
12:00 PM	Preschool A 40 min	Done for day	Preschool A 40 min	Done for day	Done for day	Weekend Free	Weekend Free
12:30 PM	Preschool A 30 min	Done for day	Preschool A 30 min	Done for day	Done for day	Weekend Free	Weekend Free
1:00 PM - 4:00 PM	Free Time (3 hours)	Free Time (3 hours)	Free Time (3 hours)	Free Time (3 hours)	Free Time (3 hours)	Weekend Free	Weekend Free
4:30 PM	Evening 30 min	Free	Evening 30 min	Free	Free	Weekend Free	Weekend Free
5:00 PM	Evening 30 min	Free	Evening 30 min	Free	Free	Weekend Free	Weekend Free
5:30 PM	Free	Free	Free	Free	Free	Weekend Free	Weekend Free

■ Preschool A
 ■ Preschool B
 ■ Preschool C
 ■ Evening Sessions
 ■ Break
 ■ Free Time

What This Looks Like in Practice:

- ✓ 16-18 sessions per week across 3 partner preschools
- ✓ Mornings: 10 AM - 1 PM (3 hours of teaching)
- ✓ Evenings: 4:30 - 6 PM (4 sessions per week, mostly Mon/Wed)
- ✓ 3-hour midday break every day for lunch, rest, or personal time
- ✓ Weekends mostly free (occasional events only)
- ✓ Tuesday & Thursday afternoons completely free
- ✓ Work-life balance built in — you're teaching what you love without burning out

What Your Days Look Like

You'll start each day knowing you'll:

- Lead 30-40 minute play-based music sessions with children aged 2-7
- Use Orff instruments, movement, and songs to build musical skills
- Work at one preschool location per day (no rushing between sites)
- Collaborate with our team during planning and debrief sessions

Qualifications

Preferred Education:

- Degree/Diploma in Early Childhood Education, Music, Performing Arts, Psychology, or Education
- Certification or knowledge/skill equivalent to Trinity/ABRSM Grade 5 or more.
- Independent Early Childhood courses, or the Montessori methods
- Piano OR Guitar/Ukulele proficiency intermediate or above

@talaeducation

Tala Education

talaeducation.com

info@talaeducation.com

9731055913

Company Culture:

- Small organization with a supportive, caring work culture
- Work-life balance is our priority – we want you to enjoy your work
- Collaborative environment where your input matters
- A growing company where you can make a real impact

Added advantage if you have the following skills, talents, and experience:

- Skills such as: composing songs, music scoring, curriculum development, and lesson planning
- Experience working with children with special needs

Benefits of working with Tāla Education

What We Don't Have: Lunch duty, bus monitoring, substitutions, endless meetings. What We Do Have: Work-life balance, professional development, supportive team culture. You will ONLY teach music!

Work-life balance, leave to rejuvenate, and team huddles to bond, learn, and have fun are a priority at Tāla Education!

Compensation: ₹25,000 – ₹60,000 / month (Depending on experience, capability, independence, and ability to grasp play-based pedagogy)

Ready to Join Us? We're looking for someone who:

We're looking for someone who believes in quality early childhood music education, welcomes feedback, values teamwork, and wants a meaningful career in a supportive environment.

If you want to join us, you've got to stand out. And the only way you can get selected is if you showcase your skills and ability by sending us the following:

1. Cover letter - your teaching philosophy with young children
2. CV with photo
3. Teaching video (live class preferred)
4. Two professional references

At Tāla Education, you're joining a team committed to nurturing children through thoughtful music education. We offer a supportive work environment where you can grow professionally while maintaining a healthy work-life balance.

Contact us to learn more about this opportunity.

JOIN US - APPLY TODAY